

2cLAST EDITION*2c

EIGHT-HOUR LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL
BRITTANIC SUNK—FIFTY DROWNED

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 6, NO. 48 Chicago, Wednesday, November 22, 1916. 398

CITY HALL CROWD ARE SCARED BY HOYNE'S WAR ON GRAFT

Clean Police Department Promised—Letting of Public Contracts, Purchase of Supplies and Sale of Docking Rights Watched by State's Att'y After Rumors of Graft.

State's Att'y Macloy Hoyne's answer to 242,847 voters who re-elected him as prosecutor came today when he took his desk in the Criminal Court bldg. after a two weeks' vacation. It was a bitter battle to the finish with crooks, started anew.

His answer to the 189,416 voters who wanted Harry B. Miller on the job for the people of Cook county was a fresh start of the scrap between his office and City Hall spoils-